PART B*COMPREHENSION

[30 marks]

4. Read the following passage carefully and answer all the questions which follows.

More than six hundred children between the ages of six and sixteen are working as forced labour in various communities along the Volta Lake. Most of the children have been sent there by parents or relatives who have been paid a fee for their services. The fee is typically a small sum of money, a piece of cloth and a bottle of alcoholic drink.

A visit to the fishing communities revealed the heart-breaking conditions of these children's lives. They are sent out on fishing trips twice a day. The first trip often lasts from as early as 3am to 5:30 am. The second trip stretches from 5:30 pm in the evening till midnight. At night, if they are lucky, they are allowed just three hours' sleep. During the day, they have to sit in the sun and mend nets. This routine goes on every day without break. Although fishing can be dangerous, they are always forced to fish and out on the lake, they are left to look after themselves. Many of them drown in stormy weather.

Most of the children do not have the chance to go to school. Those who enrol themselves in local schools are paid less. In an interview at Amankwatornu, a 12-year-old boy, who refused to identify himself for fear of being beaten, said he had been brought there by his parents several years previously to help an unknown “uncle” to fish. He said in February that year, his parents had come there as usual to collect money from the “uncle”. They had left quickly and he didn’t know where they were as at that time. He was in class two. When he went to school, he ate twice a day but he had three meals when he went fishing. The boy said he liked going to school but hunger often forced him to go fishing instead. That day, for example, he had been to school but he hadn’t eaten much so the following day, he would have to go fishing.

There are other children who do not work for fishermen but look after cattle instead. They drive cattle out to graze in the bush and most of them never go to school. At the end of four years’ hard work, they are each given a calf. The director of the Local Development Organization told us most of the children had been forbidden to speak to strangers, so it was very difficult to learn about their lives. He described them as “children who live in fear; who have lost their rights as human beings”. In other words, they are slaves.

- (a)
  - i. Why is it that most people do not know anything about the heart-breaking conditions of these children?
  - ii. What meaning can you deduce from the boy’s use of the expression an “unknown” uncle?
- (b) Apart from the fishing activity, what other work do the children do in the community?

- (d)
  - i. Who refused to identify himself for fear of being beaten?

  - i. they are usually forced;
  - ii. if they are lucky;
  - iii. In other words;
- (f) Replace each of the underlined words with other words or phrases which mean the same and can fit into the context.
